

Walking on Water

Peter, John, Matthew and Thomas are out catching fish on their boat but the sea is quite rough.

Jesus isn't with them, but suddenly they see him coming towards them, walking on water!

They think it is a ghost and they are all scared, but Jesus reassures them that it is him.

Peter wants to try walking on water, so he steps out of the boat and finds himself walking on water!

He started to feel afraid though, and as soon as he did, he started sinking.

Jesus held his hand and got him out saying 'why did you doubt?' All the disciples were amazed and said 'Jesus must be the son of God!'

Healing the Blind

Jesus was walking along and saw a man who had been blind from birth.

His disciple asked him whether it was because the man had sinned, or because the man's parents had sinned, that he was born blind.

Jesus explained that neither had sinned but that God had made him blind so that his works and power could be shown through him.

Jesus then spat on the ground and made some mud with his saliva. He then rubbed this on the man's eyes and told him to go and wash in the Pool of Siloam.

The man went and washed and came home able to see.

The man's neighbours saw this and asked if he was the man they used to see sitting and begging.

Another man in the crowd said that it wasn't and said it was just a man that looked like him.

But the man said that he was the man who used to sit and beg. He explained that 'The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and then I could see.'

